

Greensburg Public Library
Children's Floor
Greensburg, Pennsylvania

A mini-library just for kids occupies the whole second floor of this post office building which was renovated into a library. Many details designed to make the visit fun include Linn® Jr. chairs grouped among the book shelves. They encourage children to browse and read, taking time to share books with parents or teachers.

