

McKenzie Terminal Easterwood Airport, Texas A&M University College Station, Texas

Easterwood provides a gateway to the world for the students, faculty and staff of Texas A&M University and the citizens of the Brazos River Valley. McKenzie Terminal furnishes full services to commercial airline passengers. On the other side of the airport, General Aviation facilities take care of private and charter aircraft and their passengers. Both locations use August seating.

Myстера solid surface tops are a new option added in response to our customer's request for very durable table tops. Myстера combines the look of natural stone with high performance and ease of maintenance of solid surface material.

Extra upholstery covers purchased with their order will allow Maintenance to replace on site any chair covers that might experience damage, keeping all in use. Crypton finished fabric resists spills and dirt, making day to day cleaning quick and easy.

