

Helen and Martin Kimmel Center for University Life New York University

Above: Located at Washington Square, the Kimmel Center is the focus of services for commuter and local students.

State of the art facilities support activities from computer communications to dining to theaters for the performing arts.

LS Series seating echoes the dramatic sweep of the entrance stairway to the second floor study lounges. Chairs and special diameter chair segments in back to back sections complement the architectural space with maximum seating for groups and individuals.

